Indian Economy & Policy

Centre may extend sector & sponsored schemes beyond April 1 amid ongoing review

Several government schemes might continue in their present form beyond April 1. Ministries are still reviewing and rationalising these programs. The government is considering giving them more time to finalize redesigns. This delay is due to ongoing evaluation of third-party reports. Existing schemes could continue temporarily until the first quarter of the next financial year.

Stranded West Asia cargo sees anchor in local market

Indian exporters are bringing back nearly half of their stranded containers from ports. This move aims to avoid hefty demurrage and detention charges caused by the West Asia conflict. Perishable goods like fruits, vegetables, and pharmaceuticals are prioritized for domestic disposal.
