West Asia crisis: Government provides certain relaxations to exporters to meet obligations

Indian exporters receive relief from the government. Export obligation periods are extended automatically. This measure addresses challenges from the West Asia crisis impacting shipping routes and supply chains. The extension aims to support exporters facing disruptions. This move comes as global trade faces geopolitical headwinds. The government seeks to maintain India's export competitiveness.

Forget oil and gas, a bigger Iran war risk is shaping up

Global attention is on the Strait of Hormuz due to the Iran conflict. Beyond oil, a fertilizer supply shock looms. This could disrupt agriculture, leading to food shortages and price hikes. India faces increased import costs and subsidy burdens. The impact on food security and inflation is a significant concern for the coming months and years.
